

Poll Shows Reasons Why Voters Favor Coolidge

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4.—The most unique poll that has ever been taken in a presidential campaign has just been completed. This poll differs from that of the Literary Digest and polls taken by various papers throughout the country in that it does not total the number of votes cast for the different candidates but it does give the reasons for voting for Calvin Coolidge.

Three months ago five thousand letters were sent to voters residing in Washington, Oregon, California, Montana, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Nevada, Minnesota, Kansas, Michigan, New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma, Missouri, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Tennessee, Kentucky, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine. These communications were sent to men and women in different walks of life; wage earners in many lines of endeavor, farmers, ministers, manufacturers, railroad men, potters, men, in fact nearly all lines of human activities. These voters were asked to state if they were going to vote for Coolidge and if so, why. While it is not possible to print all the reasons set down by the writers of these letters, a number are given. Among the reasons are the following:

"I am for Coolidge because he is honest—Coolidge has always given labor a square deal—He has always kept faith with the people—He believes in telling the people the truth and does not try to fool them—He believes, in clean, honest and sane legislation—He is a highly respected member of his church—He does not believe in favoring any class of people—His concern is not for the nation by sections, he is for the whole country—Because of his ideal home life—Because he is for a square deal for everybody—Because he has said in public, nothing is worth having unless you can have it in the right way—His early training fitted him to get the viewpoint of the man or woman who works for a living—Because what he has to say is to the point and is said so that everyone can understand it—Because he is considerate of all helpful to others—Because he detests pretense, sham, humbug or anything that is in the slightest way unfair or dishonest—Because his thoughts and words are of a constructive nature—Because he believes in the sanctity of the home—Because he believes that everyone should vote—Because he believes in the upholding of the law—Because he is a square shooter (an honest person)—Because he won't lie to get a vote—Because he goes to church—Because he studies problems and when he arrives at a decision, he lets you know what he really means, he does not beat around the bush—Because he tried to really help the farmers and did not give us a mess of hot air—Because he is for you if you are right and against you if you are wrong—Because he doesn't start his mouth going and then forget to turn it off—Because when he talks he says what he has to say straight from the shoulder and you know exactly what he means—Because he believes in the clean, decent things of life—Because he has been before the people for years and is 100 per cent honest—Because he doesn't forget his friends—Because he works at his job every day—Because he has been a real, not a theorist—Because he was fair to the railroad men when he was governor of our state (Massachusetts)—Because he respects women—Because he has ideals and lives up to them—Because he is the only President that ever saw to it that we had some of our taxes refunded to us—Because with Coolidge in the White House we will have work and good wages—Because he is on the level—Because he never considered his own political future when it came to deciding public questions—he decided on the basis of right and justice."

TRUCK CRASHES INTO BUILDING

Quick action and presence of mind of Dan France, driver of a heavy Humbard Construction company truck, probably averted a serious accident on Cumberland avenue at 8 o'clock this morning but resulted in damage to the brick partition between the Palace of Sweet and the Coca-Cola company. According to witnesses, Mr. France was driving the loaded construction company eastward. A large touring car driven by a boy apparently about fourteen years old was immediately in front of the truck. "The truck driver claims that the boy, without a warning signal, cut the touring car across in front of his truck."

To avoid the impending crash, Mr. France steered his truck into the sidewalk. The heavy vehicle ran entirely across the twenty-foot sidewalk and crashed into the brick partition which protrudes several inches from the store front. A number of bricks were broken from the edge of the partition but the truck was apparently not damaged and the driver was not hurt.

The youthful driver of the big blue touring car stopped briefly, surveyed the damage, then left before his identity was learned. He had a single passenger in the car, a small girl about three years old.

Grading for a new sidewalk is in progress on East Cumberland avenue in front of the Middlesboro Medicine company. The sidewalk will be raised higher than the other in order to be above the surface water during hard rains.

Louisville Livestock

Italy living in California, said in her letter:

"You can never print anywhere near all the reasons why the people are for Mr. Coolidge. The reasons are too numerous, but you can say for me that the people want him because he is the man to stop this abominable scheme of the enemies of our country trying to break down our government. Coolidge is the right man, in the right place, at the right time."

BUSINESS GAINS IN PORTO RICO

Island Shows Big Increase in Trade—Purchases from United States.

By Associated Press.
SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Oct. 4.—Porto Rico trade for the year ended June 30 reached a total of $177,650,184 according to report of customs just completed, showing an increase of more than $23,000,000 over last year. The island's trade for the year was approximately 11 times that of 1900, when it was $16,000,000, and shows an increase of $98,000,000 since 1917, the last pre-war year.

For the first time since 1907 there was an unfavorable balance of trade against the island amounting to more than $1,000,000. The share of the total trade between Porto Rico and the United States was 91 percent, a decline of nine tenths of 1 percent of the previous year.

Total purchases from the United States were $80,500,021 and from foreign countries $8,779,043 making a total value for imports of $89,279,064. Exports from the United States were valued at $90,751,975, and from foreign countries $7,525,365, making a total value of exports $98,277,340.

There was an increase of 42 percent in the exports to foreign countries, indicating that the island is growing as a distributing point for nearby countries of the Caribbean. There was also an increase of 50 percent in the number of vessels entering and clearing from Porto Rican ports during the year.

Thousands at the Hawthorne race track, Chicago, were thrilled when Lillian Boyer, daredevil aviator, came close to death. As she jumped from an auto to a ladder trailed by a plane, one rung of the ladder caught on the exhaust pipe of the car. The driver of the car saved the girl's life by going into skid and disengaging the rope.

Occult Warning Is Too Late to Avert Tragedy

Associated Press.
BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 4.—A warning that his safety was menaced by a dark man with a club was given Fred Clements his wife, a spiritualist medium, but the advice did not save him. Mrs. Clements last night identified the body found in the Shawshank river Thursday wrapped in a sea weighted with automobile cylinder heads as that of her husband. The lad a premonition of danger to woman told the police that "Go Clements and warned him" to be careful. Clements was sixty years old and a former minister in New England.

Jinkishas Obsolete in Jap Capital Now

By Associated Press.
TOKIO, Oct. 4.—The jinkisha, inseparably associated with Japan of song and story, is passing off figures prove this. Recently officers of the city's statistical bureau counted the traffic passing Owaricho, Tokio's "Forty-second" and saw ten tram cars pass the intersection, eight passenger automobiles, four motor trucks, eight hand carts, 36 bicycles, 122 pedestrians and one lone jinkisha.

The comparatively higher speed at which Tokio now lives, and the high cost of man power, are causes for the passing of the jinkisha.

Victim of Razor Is Recovering from Cut

Jesse "Slim" Harris, colored citizen who almost lost his head in a very literal manner a few weeks ago, has recovered from the wound inflicted by the enemy's razor sufficiently to leave the hospital. "Slim" was attacked by Huston ("Rab") Ewing a few weeks ago. The latter, wielding a razor, cut his adversary in the neck, completely severing the windpipe, also on the back of the neck. Physicians stated that his head was practically cut off and they marveled that he so quickly recovered from the wound.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

THAT of the five human senses: Seeing, Hearing, Feeling, Smelling and Tasting, SIGHT is more indispensable than the other four senses combined.

THAT sight should be used more to read carefully the news of political matters so the voter could act wisely as to who to select and who to vote for, for public offices.

THAT often many men do not show public spirit enough to vote.

THAT they often speak contemptuously of politicians and complain about high taxes, scold about the lack of judgment of officials, yet, they do nothing themselves to help improve these conditions.

THAT frequently men slip into office because they have a genial manner and are "good fellows," while the man with business ability is overlooked.

THAT men with business ability, breadth of mind, and sincerity of purpose is what is needed in public office today.

THAT the country will have better government only when the people pay more attention to politics and the ability of candidates to do the work required.

THAT every voter should vote and they should insist that capable people be on the ticket.

THAT he is not always the office-holder that is at fault.

THAT he is not always backed up by needful laws.

THAT the voter should express some of his opinions in the way he votes.

PEOPLE who are not interested enough in good government to vote, should soft pedal on some of their opinions.

PLAYGROUND ASSOCIATION WORK BEGINS

New York Director Is Here to Start Program.

SUPERVISED PLAY

August Fischer, New York, Well Trained for Work—Mrs. Hinks Is Selected for Chairman.

With the arrival of the new playground and recreation director, August Fischer of New York, the Middlesboro Playground and Recreation Association is prepared to begin active work. The association was formed some time ago but had undertaken no organized program until the director arrived.

Mrs. D. G. Hinks is chairman of the association; M. H. Zaubler and J. W. Bradner are directors, Mrs. Warren P. Hink is secretary and C. A. Blackburn is treasurer. Members of the association are all who have subscribed for its support.

The work of the association, according to a tentative program outlined by Mr. Fischer to the board last night will begin at once. It will consist of supervised play on the school grounds after school hours, with additional volley ball, baseball and other equipment; organization of a dramatic club to further the presentation of home talent plays and interstudies; promotion of industrial and church basketball tournaments; establishment of horseshoe pitching on several vacant lots in the downtown section of town, and immediate organization of Boy Scout troops for boys over 12 years of age and Boy Rangers, troops for boys from 8 to 12 years.

In the spring the work will, of course, branch out because of the many opportunities offered for out-of-doors play and hiking.

Mr. Fischer is particularly well trained for this sort of work. He has an academic education at Cornell and Columbia University he is a graduate of the Chicago school for the training of playground director. He has had six years experience in social service and recreation work in New York settlement houses.

At his last position, which he held for four years, he had charge of a settlement house supported by a large New York church and which reached about 200 persons.

His work there consisted in organization of Boy and Girl Scouts, Boy Rangers, Radio Clubs, handicraft classes, hikes, dramatics with all groups and ages, field days, direction of summer camps, supervision of physical training and direction of Sunday School work. Mr. Fischer has had training and has played in practically all athletic games.

The following local citizens, subscribers to the fund, comprise the association: W. R. Archer, J. W. Bosworth, R. W. Waker, C. A. Blackburn, J. C. Baumgardner, J. W. Bates, C. T. Cleland, H. C. ## Waif Finds Seven Homes Thru Daily News Item

Seven good homes have been offered Joie Ferry, fourteen years old girl whose own home was wrecked by domestic infidelity since the small news item requesting a permanent home for her appeared several days ago in the Middlesboro Daily News.

Joie will accept none of these, however, for her own father which authorities were unable to find, has been found through the agency of the newspaper publicity and he is willing, even eager, to take care of the child. He is employed at a feed store and can provide her with a good home. The child is very much pleased over going to him.

The girl was rendered homeless through domestic trouble in which was aired in the juvenile court. The court placed her in the custody of the Salvation Army which, in turn sought through the columns of this newspaper to find her a home.

Capt. Steinhour was surprised at getting so many generous responses to the printed request.

HARLAN SENATOR MAKES BOND PLEA

Hiram Brock Says "Tack Issue Out of Politics," at Richmond.

Associated Press.

RICHMOND, Oct. 4.—Here in the garden spot of the world, central Kentucky, voters must heed the plea of the isolated mountaineer, Hiram Brock, Harlan, veteran state senator and republican leader, told a county gathering today in an address in behalf of adoption of the $75,000,000 bond issue.

He spoke following the meeting of the board of regents of the Eastern Normal School of which he is a member, in the first of an announced non-partisan movement over central and western Kentucky of bond issue proponents.

"Take the $75,000,000 bond issue out of politics," he pleaded. "You people in the Blue Grass have always got what you wanted. Not a dollar has been spent east of here. Give us in the mountains a chance to visit the Blue Grass. Give us a chance to go to school. Give us a chance to be educated. Give us a chance to breathe the air of other sections."

"Eastern Kentucky stands solid for the bond issue, republicans and democrats. It is the pressing need. It is the only question being discussed in Kentucky."

The highway commissioners are honest. Give them a chance to function. There is not a penny of taxation to any of you in the bond issue. Not one cent. Either adopt the bond issue or as sure as I stand here prepare for more taxation.

The institutions must have development. The bond issue offers the only plan for rebuilding these institutions."

He then detailed what he said are the conditions in educational and penal institutions.

"Don't make me go to Frankfort when the highway commission meets and try through favoritism and cajolery and every which way to obtain good roads for our counties."

"Let the development be apportioned and worked out through the bond issue."

"Whether or not Kentucky shall issue bonds to supply her needs is purely a business proposition submitted to the sound judgment of her citizens. Let her citizens use that judgment."

Hague Is Host to Stamp Collectors

By Associated Press.
THE HAGUE, Oct. 4.—Postage stamp collectors from all over the world are here for the International Philatelic Exposition, which was opened in the presence of many of the world's leading collectors.

Prominent among the 230,100 stamps shown are the large exhibits of the Dutch, Postal Department and the German Postal Ministry in Berlin. Curiously enough, the latter claims to own a collection of early English issues superior to the important one in the possession of King George of England. On the other hand it is an English collector who shows what is reputed to be the finest collection of stamps of the Confederate States of America.

Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Prohibition officers claim to have discovered a gigantic Anglo-American bootlegging conspiracy with $10,000,000 involved when they towed into harbor today a twin-screw British vessel under an armed guard with a half million dollar liquor cargo on board.

Leadership of General Fields, superintendent of the dry forces, made the capture after the discovery of the purchase of 25,000 cases of whiskey from the vessel's master, paying $100,000 in currency and checks for the contraband.

Bankers of this country, England and Canada were concerned in the conspiracy, Superintendent W. A. Walker asserted.

ARGENTINA NOW BIG POLO FAN

Associated Press.

Buenos Aires, Oct. 4.—The recent triumph of an Argentine polo team in the Paris Olympic meeting thereby winning the world
Olympic championship in polo for Argentina has intensified to a great extent public interest in the game which first began to be shown during the successful tour of an Argentine four in the United States and Great Britain two years ago.
Until quite recently polo was practically unheard of by the general public here as few persons took much interest in the game. Polo is now played in nearly all the Argentine cavalry regiments and is being taken up enthusiastically by Argentine ranchers.

The game was first played in Argentina among British ranchers settled in the country. What is considered to be the first match was played as far back as 1875 in North Argentina. The game was stopped by local police on the grounds that it was too dangerous a pastime. Native ponies entrusted with the care of polo ponies have shown themselves excellent players and many leading polo authorities here believe that more than one team could be formed among the cowboys quite able to defeat the Olympic champions.

The interests of polo in Argentina are looked after by the Argentine Polo Association to which the principal polo clubs of the country are affiliated. President Alvarez is honorary president of this organization.

An annual championship and many tournaments are held under the auspices of the Association that attract entries from polo clubs in the interior of Argentina and from the cavalry regiments and others.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—With the campaign settled down to the last month of strenuous barnstorming, Washington dopesters, who always like to be a few jumps ahead of the procession, already are beginning to cogitate
on cabinet possibilities.
Beginning first with Coolidge, early speculation deals chiefly with how many of the present "official family" are likely to remain as right hand helpers to the executive should Chairman Billy Butler
of Boston bring home the bacon
for the G. O. P.

Only three of the present cabinet are generally listed as sure to be retained in their present positions
under a second Coolidge administration.

Three others are placed as virtually certain of retention, however, while two are considered as on the doubtful list, with the chances in favor of their returning to private life. Two, as the possibility now goes, are definitely slated
for the discard.

THE fair-haired boys listed as certain to be kept on the job by Coolidge are:
Hughes in the State Department;
Mellon in the Treasury;
Stone in the Department of Justice.

Coolidge publicly placed the sign of his admiration and confidence on Hughes and Mellon in his speech of acceptance when he slated them as the outstanding figures, in their respective departments, in the whole of American history.

Stone, although a newcomer in the cabinet, with his record yet to make, is closer to the president than most of the Harding cabinet selections who were retained in office after Coolidge's accession.

He was an old acquaintance and friend of the president, a fellow Amherst grad, and was the per-

TAXPAYERS' SUIT AGAINST SHERIFF

Claim That Former Sheriffs Made
No Settlement — Appeals
Court to Decide.

By Associated Press
FRANKFORT, Oct. 4.—Arguments were heard before the Court of Appeals in the case of Paul C.
Shipp, taxpayer, against J. W.
Rogers and Thomas C. Bradley, former sheriffs, appealed from the Fayette circuit court and involving disposal of fees collected by Rogers and Bradley from the last Hardness estate, Fayette county.
Last slide was allowed one hour
of oral argument.

sonal choice, of the president to fill the office left vacant by Daugh-erty's forced resignation. He also will be kept on the job if Coolidge wins.

WEEKS can probably stay at the head of the War Department if he wants to—and he is expected to want to.
Similarly, Work and Davis, as secretaries of Interior and labor respectively, are held as reasonably sure to hold on, for a time at least.

Wallace, as head of the Department of Agriculture, however, is listed as rather more likely to go than stay. Wallace's views as to methods of agricultural relief did not get the same executive approval that was given Mellon's tax reduction plan, for instance.

In fact, the Wallace recommendations were rather "sat on." There have been rumors of dissension and friction between Wallace and the president and Wallace and other members of the cabinet dating back into Harding's time.
Whether these will be forgiven and forgotten in the joy of a Republican victory remains to be seen.

HERBERT HOOVER, secretary of commerce, also is listed in the doubtful column. The president thinks very highly of Hoover, but Hoover doesn't think so highly of political life. Just as he refused to accept a nomination for vice president, he may decline
a second term in the cabinet.
In that event, the wisecracks say,
look for his successor to be William M. Butler of Boston, Coolidge campaign manager.

THE two members mentioned as most likely to be missing in a reconstructed Coolidge cabinet are Postmaster General Harry New and Secretary of Navy Wilbur. Secretary Steirop is doped for New's portfolio, while New is expected to repair his fences for an other senatorial fight, in 1926.

The records the judges had of fore them were voluminous. The case involves monies handled by Bradley in 1913, 1915, 1916, and 1917 and by Rogers in 1918, 1919
and 1920.

Bradley, elected Fayette county sheriff in November, 1913, had the National Surety company, as his surety and the company demurred
in both cases in Shipp's petition brought in behalf of all taxpayers of the county on allegation that the sheriffs breached their bonds.

The lower court sustained de-murrer of the surety company and,
upon appeal, the higher court reversed the lower court's judgment. An amended petition was filed 148 times, and in the meanwhile Fayette county, through its county attorney, and the Commonwealth, on relation of Charles L.
Dawson, the then attorney general, petitioned to become party to the suit. Petitions and amended petitions, orders, and motions followed in almost endless technical maneuver up to today's arguments.

Arguments of Shipp's attorneys wrote that Bradley during his one term of four years as sheriff of Fayette county made no settlement, nor that he made any report showing the fees, penalties,
per diem salaries, or commissions received by him; nor paid or refor the excess of these fees, penalties, or commissions over his compensation.

The proposition of law in the Rhodes cases was presented on illustrations of being exactly the same covering a latter period.

Arguments of the attorneys for the sheriffs were that the two officials had acted within the law.

BOBS
Rich girl, poor girl,
Nice girl, snob,
One and all they Succumb to the bob.

Fat face, long face,
Round face or square,
Somehow they all want
To lose their hair.

Mothers or grandmothers,
Right on the job,
Trying to keep up by Getting a bob.

Husbands and fathers
And brothers and beaux Plead all in vain for Each one of them goes

Straight to the barber,
A clamoring mob, Shouting: "I'm next, will you give me a bob?"

"Shave go the shears
And 'bob-hoo' they all sob,
"Why did I ever say,

Bride and Groom
To Be Honored.
Miss Freda Easton, Miss Charline Gable and John Walbrecht gave a kitchen, dining-room shower for Miss Elizabeth Hurst and Mrs. Joe Calhoun, bride and groom-to-be, at the Elk Home Friday night. While the wedding march was played by Miss Lillian Seay, little Norma Easton and Tempin Easton, dressed in large as-embly room where the bride and groom were seated. Following after were Sylvia and Bill Easton with the wash tub, laden with gifts. Otella Easton met them at the seat of honor with the toast of welcome: "We are looking for Mr. and Mrs. Callison to be to deliver the gifts we have here, as you see. They come from your friends gathered here together. To wish you good luck and much sunny weather. These bundles contain the tools needed most. In preparing Joe's breakfast of beefsteak and toast. We hope you will know how to make use of them all. To cook a good dinner and not let the cake fall. Please open your bundles, after reading the lines. Giving us a chance to test the brilliance of our rhymes. Now, here's hoping you both will ever be a good husband and wife. May each day bring more love, happiness and long life."

Guessing the contents of each package was one of the contests, in which Miss Henrietta Davidson and John McKinnon won the prizes. Throughout the evening, bright colored hallowe'ens were showered among the guests. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by the Blue Ribbon Syncopators, orchestra, after which refreshments were served. Eighty-five guests were present. Hurst; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Callison, Mr. and Mrs. William Walbrecht, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Walbrecht, Jr., Mrs. Mason Owsley, Mrs. George Easton and Mrs. W. H. Gable.

Many friends called between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock.

FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS TOMORROW

By Associated Press.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 4.—Yesterday's football game with the University of Louisville eleven will be the first game spectators will watch from the new athletic stadium here. The south side of the stadium will seat 5,000 persons.

On the last day of practice, the University of Kentucky coaches resorted to "hard talk". The prevailing expression was one that the blue and white warriors would fight hard to stave off defeat in the hands of the oncoming Cardinals, whose arrangements were to leave Louisville yesterday.

Sermonizing against the Freshmen continued until today when signal practice became the order. Coach Murphy shifted his strategy to make Klendz, crack quarter, pivot of the cadet's attacks. He said the men to play today would be heavy, with these among the picking.

Kirwan, 185; King, 178; Montgomery, 230; Van Meter, 195; Ike, 166; Green, 135; Tracy, 149; Smith, 166; Hughes, 152; Sanders, 183.

DANVILLE, Oct. 4.—Centre College's football team announced today for the first battle of its 1924 schedule—the fracas today with Valparaiso University's outfit.

The Colonel's backers watched the last drill and turned faces northward awaiting arrival of the Hoosiers, reminded that last year the Indiana team won six of its eight games, scoring in points or better in four of the contests.

The outsider's tricky offense is known, Capt. Covington said. Ten backfield men have been primed in pivoting and evading tackles and Lemon has been sent through his place-kicking from the 50 yard mark.

Capt. Covington, Gordy and Morrow are expected to start in the backfield while Reitenstein, injured, was finally given up in the lining up of the boys for the week end play.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 4.—Marlin Plestina and William Demetral met on the mat tonight. The wrestling bout will have preliminaries, a write between Frank, 144 lb., Lexington Lightweight and Clyde Wilhoit, Georgetown.

Young Jack Blackburn, Memphis and Jimmy Moore, Cincinnati, will box next Tuesday night in a 12 round go.
